

UNITED offers night of musical worship

There's a quote attributed to the German monk Martin Luther that says "beautiful music ... is one of the most magnificent and delightful presents God has given us."

A gathering planned for Sunday May 21st, 7pm, aims to give that gift back to God with an evening of singing and musical worship, reflection and prayer for the purpose of celebrating Jesus Christ in a unified community.

The event is called UNITED and its goal is to create exciting and life-changing environments by gathering members of all the area church communities in one place, together, for worship through music. UNITED begins at 7 p.m. in the Cedar Hills Church auditorium, 227 McGhee Road in Kootenai.

UNITED is being hosted by Cedar Hills, however Weston Grillo (Cedar Hills music pastor), emphasizes that this is a collaborative event. Grillo says, "This is not a Cedar Hills event" He continues, "We will be hosting two musical bands, partnering with a number of local AV production people, and creating awareness about Cocolalla Bible Camp ...a fantastic organization that is having incredible impact on both local and regional families and individuals." Everyone is invited, as this event continues to build regular recurring musical worship events.

"Churches joining together present an opportunity to pool resources and impact our community in ways we never dreamed were possible," said Grillo. "We are stronger in sharing the message of Jesus Christ together than we can ever be on our own."

Everyone is invited to attend on Sunday May 21, 7pm; Visit cedarhillschurch.com or call Cedar hills at 208-265-8500 and request more info about UNITED.
